About US Media Literacy Week (#mediaLitWk)

Media Literacy Week is designed to bring attention to media literacy education in the United States. Inspired by Canada's Media Literacy Week, the National Association for Media Literacy Education (NAMLE) is leading the efforts around the country, highlighting the critical role of media literacy education for families and children.

About the Digital Citizenship Summit

The Digital Citizenship Summit is a global network of summits and projects focused on the safe, savvy, and ethical use of social media & tech. Our focus is bringing together people, organizations, and businesses to connect in person, take part in meaningful conversations and take an active role in creating positive digital change on both a local and global level.
